

LOOKING FOR

Mechanical Supervisor

Your responsibilities:

- responsible for the supervision and coordination of the installation and commissioning of production lines and individual machines
- line optimization, preparation and execution of performance tests
- regular meetings with the customer
- documentation of project progress via Site Reports
- monitoring of time schedule
- management of assigned technicians and foreign technicians on site
- error analysis and communication with the engineering departments
- documented transfer of machinery and equipment in the ownership of the customer
- change and claim management with customers and suppliers

Your profile:

- graduated engineer in mechanical engineering, process engineering etc.
- extensive professional experience
- good English and/or German skills
- experience in working with MS-Project
- specific, technical know-how in large plant industry or process industry
- strong team player with high commitment and intercultural understanding
- willingness to travel worldwide

About us

As a global company we offer our customers professional solutions in engineering and large plant engineering projects: Whether legal engineering, contract- or project management, assembly or commissioning of machines and plants – BM-TECH is a reliable partner, always!

Please apply only in English or German.

BM-Tech GmbH
Robinienstrasse 14
67158 Ellerstadt
Germany

Ihr Ansprechpartner:
Verena Weigand
Mail: v.weigand@bm-tech.de

