

LOOKING FOR

COMMISSIONING ENGINEER (m/f)

Your responsibilities

- Commissioning of machines and their integration into the technical infrastructure of existing systems
- monitoring of the automation processes and function tests (setting and optimization) under the initial operation
- Execution of acceptance tests
- initiate corrective action
- preparation of check lists
- testing of the equipment and preparation of error logs
- adjustment of the wiring diagram on site
- securing the execution of applicable standards, regulations and quality guidelines

Your qualifications

- successfully completed training as a technician in electrical engineering, automation, mechatronics or equivalent
- practical experience in the commissioning of lines/equipment with a high level of automation
- experience in PLC programming with SIMATIC S7 TIA Portal and Beckhoff
- Know-How in HMI configuration and visualization (ICONICS, WinCC) preferable
- knowledge in various systems such as PROFIBUS, PROFINET, DeviceNet
- Good German language skills
- high quality awareness and problem-oriented thinking
- ability to work independently
- team worker and a high flexibility
- willingness to travel

About us

As a global company we offer our customers professional solutions in engineering and large plant engineering projects: Whether legal engineering, contract- or project management, assembly or commissioning of machines and plants – BM-TECH is a reliable partner, always!

Please apply only in English or German.

BM-Tech GmbH
Robinienstrasse 14
67158 Ellerstadt

Contact:
Karin André-Kramer
career@bm-tech.de

